

“Inspired by Crawley History” Creative Writing Competition

As part of an exhibition we want to fill our temporary exhibition gallery with writing inspired by the history of Crawley.

Entries will be displayed in Crawley Museum during our exhibition “A Neat Clean Town: Writings about Crawley’s History” which runs from 26th February to 10th May 2020.

We will award small prizes. The prize giving event will be on Saturday 2nd May from 2-4pm.

All entries should be inspired in some way by the history of Crawley and can be either factual or fictional – it’s up to you!

There are 3 categories:

Short story/essay - maximum of 1000 words

Micro story/essay - maximum of 100 words

Poem - maximum of 30 lines

There are 3 age groups - 0 to 10, 11 -18, over 18

Entries can be in any language, but if you’re submitting in a language other than English please provide an English translation.

All entries should be typed or clearly handwritten.

Entries should be accompanied by an entry form and sent by email to:

Andrea@crawleymuseums.org with the words ‘Writing Competition’ in the subject header or by post to:

Copyright for all entries remains with the writer.

However, by entering the competition you give Crawley Museum permission to display the work in the exhibition “A Neat Clean Town: Writings about Crawley’s History.” which will run from 26th February to 10th May 2020. Photographs of the exhibition may be displayed on social media and the museum website. If you do not wish your work to feature in any of our photographs please let us know.

The name of the writer will be displayed with the work unless you tell us that you wish to be anonymous.

The competition will be judged by a small panel of local residents. Their decision is final.
